Dated: 6th July, 2023

Dear Training Institutions,

As you are aware, Deptt. of Social Justice & Empowerment implements Pradhan Mantri Dakshata aur Kushalta Sampann Hitgrahi (PM-DAKSH) Yojana for providing high quality skills through good quality institutions to empower the target groups in finding jobs or self employment ventures. A copy of the scheme guidelines and corrigendum issued are enclosed for your ready reference.

2. This Department is contemplating to empanel for 2023-24 and onwards, competent and desirous Govt. and private training institutes having sufficient academic and physical infrastructure, with good track record of performance. Accordingly, the Department invites you to join the scheme for implementation in 2023-24. For this purpose, the following information may kindly be provided through email :

- (i) An upto date letter of registration issued through SMART portal i.r.o. any job role for which you intend to train.
- (ii) Details of the physical and academic infrastructure available with the training institute including its centers, if any.
- (iii) In case of a Govt. training institute, a self-certified statement indicating that the training institute is a Government training institution and the documentary proof thereof indicating explicitly that your institution is a Govt. training institute.
- (iv) If the training institute has previously worked with PM-DAKSH, the performance therein alongwith position of release of funds including 1st, 2nd and 3rd installments year-wise. If the training institute is new to PM-DAKSH, the physical and financial performance during last three years of the training institute with documentary proof may be shared.
- (v) If the training institute is confident about its eligibility and eventual signing of an MoA with this Department, the institute may fill up the enclosed proforma to give details about type of training, residential or non-residential, target groups, QPIDs etc. of the proposed training to be undertaken by the institute.

(v) An undertaking that if any information or claim furnished by you i.r.o. of your training institute/centers is found to be incorrect, your empanelment may be cancelled by the Department and further penal action as per provisions of the scheme may be taken.

3. If the information provided by you meets the requirement of PM-DAKSH, an MoA is likely to be signed with your training institute for imparting training for PM-DAKSH for 2023-24 and onwards.

4. It is requested that the above information i.r.o. your organisation should be received in this Department through email by 20.07.2023.

5. The complete proposal with all documentary proofs about physical and academic infrastructure, physical and financial progress, experience about performing Govt. related training work should be received through email at dharam.dgsnd@gov.in within stipulated time.
